

Quality Assurance Intern

Hobsons, a trailblazing education, technology, and recruitment services company, is looking for a talented, high-energy candidate interested in gaining experience in a Quality Assurance internship. Hobsons offers all of the benefits of a multinational corporation with the values and spirit of an entrepreneurial company. The Hobsons culture encourages creativity and innovation. With nearly 3 million copies of more than 100 publications distributed annually, Hobsons is the single largest provider of worldwide education and corporate recruitment information and technology.

We are looking for someone who is currently studying (or just graduated) in MIS, CS, or a related field but does not necessarily have past experience in IT. Our QA team develops, processes, and tests plans to assure product quality. If you are passionate about software quality, would like to work with the latest technologies and tools, and want to be part of a team that values people, collaboration, and learning, we would like to talk with you. This is a full-time position into August 2008.

Essential Functions/Responsibilities

- Create and execute test requirements and test cases.
- Isolate, reproduce, and accurately report software defects and deficiencies.
- Verify fixed/newly implemented issues.
- Provide feedback and suggestions/input on products.
- Represent the customer's viewpoint.

Minimum Qualifications

- Have an understanding of user interface best practices.
- Be able to meet deadlines and be committed to team goals.
- Exhibit good communication and writing skills.
- Exhibit good attention to detail.
- Have experience with Internet Explorer, Firefox, and Safari.
